Principal's Message

Character Pillars: Dignity

Hello TEACH Academy families!

A part of what makes TEACH Academy so special is our focus on educating and supporting the whole child. This means that not only are we teaching students academically, but we also prioritize our student's emotional well being and physical health. Here at TEACH Academy, we have 10 character pillars that we teach and celebrate that are designed to reach all aspects of our children's lives. Each month we focus on a different pillar. These pillars are in large print on the side of our school, serving as a visual representation in our community for what we as a school believe in.

Each September we focus on Dignity. But what does it mean to show Dignity at TEACH?

TEACH Academy defines dignity as the quality of being worthy of honor, respect, or high esteem. The TEACH student who exemplifies dignity not only understands what the word means, but they're able to teach other students the meaning as well. This student always stays true to their values. They don't change the way that they act, or treat people a certain way just to fit in or impress any groups of people. When this student makes a mistake, they take accountability for their actions and learn from it. They don't ever make excuses for their actions.

You can support us by reinforcing what it means to have dignity in your homes. Thank you.

An Affinity for Culture, by Dr. Jason Garcia - Assistant Principal

Hello,

The team of TEACH teachers function within a team of dedicated, driven, and collaborative individuals. We are all fingers that fold together to create a bulging fist that fights against ignorance and intolerance. TEACH fights to build a culture of intellectualism and kindness, a place where different ideas can be explored and developed. Working together functions as a paragon of efficiency that propels us into the upper limits of educational stratospheres. I am proud to be on a team of professionals that prioritizes the learning of students and strives to be better the next day. We are all lifelong learners that benefit from the expertise of the circle. A team of superheroes works the same. The masters of water, need fire benders; the masters of air, need earth benders, we all need each other in some way. This humility makes us more prepared to prepare students for the challenges life may bring. TEACH is more than a school, it is a place where self improvement is the foundation of team ethics.

Thank you for choosing TEACH, come learn with us.

Thank You,

The Reading Corner

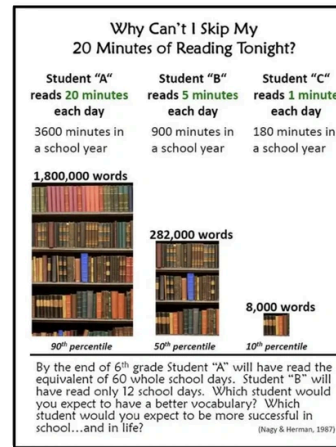

Talk • Track • Teach | 15 Minutes a Day

Purpose

A simple daily routine that helps your child understand what they read, grow vocabulary, and build confidence. No worksheets or prep needed. Just read and talk together.

What You Need

- Any book, article, or school text
- A quiet space

The 15-Minute Plan

Minute 1–2 | Preview Together

- What do you think this will be about?
- What do you already know about this topic?
- What questions do you have?

Minute 3–10 | Read and Track Thinking

- Take turns reading or listen while your child reads
- Pause and ask: What just happened? Why? What might happen next?
- Help with tricky words and keep going
- Keep it conversational, not a quiz

Minute 11–15 | Teach Back

- Tell me the story in 3 sentences
- Who were the main characters and what was the problem?
- What was the most important part?
- What did you learn today?

Why This Works

- Talking builds comprehension
- Explaining strengthens memory
- Reading aloud improves fluency
- Daily conversation builds confidence

Simple Routine to Remember

Preview → Read → Talk → Teach Back

15 minutes a day makes a big difference.
